37. Force Majeure

Neither Party is liable for delays caused by Force Majeure.

“Force Majeure” shall mean any event beyond the control of Bank or of the Contractor, as the case may be, and which is unavoidable notwithstanding the reasonable care of the party affected, and which could not have been prevented by exercise of reasonable skill and care and good industry practices and shall include, without limitation, the following:

- a. War, hostilities, invasion, act of foreign enemy and civil war;
- b. Rebellion, revolution, insurrection, mutiny, conspiracy, riot, civil commotion and terrorist acts;
- c. Strike, sabotage, unlawful lockout, epidemics, quarantine and plague;
- d. Act of God, Earthquake, fire, flood or cyclone, or other natural/ manmade disaster;

As soon as reasonably practicable but not more than 48 (forty-eight) hours following the date of commencement of any event of Force Majeure, an Affected Party shall notify the other Party of the event of Force Majeure setting out, inter alia, the following in reasonable detail:

- i. The date of commencement of the event of Force Majeure;
- ii. The nature and extent of the event of Force Majeure;
- iii. The estimated Force Majeure Period,

Signature of Bidder along with Firm Seal

Reasonable proof of the nature of such delay or failure and its anticipated effect upon the time for performance and the nature of and the extent to which, performance of any of its obligations under the Contract is affected by the Force Majeure. The measures which the Affected Party has taken or proposes to take to alleviate/mitigate the impact of the Force Majeure and to resume performance of such of its obligations affected thereby. Any other relevant information concerning the Force Majeure and /or the rights and obligations of the Parties under the Contract.

38. Non-Disclosure & Confidentiality

The Contractor shall hold all Bank system details, infrastructure, and operational data in strict confidence. Information shall not be published or disclosed to third parties without prior written consent. This clause survives contract termination.

39. Insolvency & Summary Termination

SBI may summarily terminate the Contract without compensation if the Contractor:

- (i) Is adjudged insolvent, enters liquidation, or makes assignments with creditors.
- (ii) Passes a resolution or court order for winding up / receivership.
- (iii) Commits a material breach of any terms herein.

40. Authority & Power to Enter Agreement

Both Parties warrant that they possess full legal power and corporate authority to execute and perform this Contract.

41. Complete Understanding & Acceptance
