

CORRIGENDUM: REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL FOR Procurement Forensic tool and technologies for Cyber Security Centre of Excellence (CSCoE). RFP Number: SBI/GITC/ISD/IR/2025-2026/1391 Dated 19.09.2025

Sl. No.	RFP Page No.	Clause No.	Existing Clause	Revised Clause
1	76	Sr No. 22 of Technical & Functional Specification: Appendix-C	Mobile OSINT Tool The subscription should have below mentioned or equivalent specifications • Should have advanced search functionality allows users to search by phone number, email address on Publicly accessible websites and open-source intelligence (OSINT) locations. • Should provide options for users to save or export search results. • The platform should be compatible with major operating systems such as Windows, macOS, and Linux. • The platform should have an intuitive and user-friendly interface, allowing easy navigation and access to search functions. • The platform should provide fast and efficient search results retrieval, ensuring a smooth user experience. • The platform must allow the analyst to create custom filter views and save the same for ease of use. • The platform should include secure authentication mechanisms. • The proposed subscription/ tools should provide upto 250000 search per year. • Support and Maintenance - Provide detailed training sessions for staff to ensure smooth operation and maintenance of the tool. • The proposed tool should provide subscription for 03 Years including support during the subscription period.	Mobile OSINT Tool The subscription should have below mentioned or equivalent specifications • Should have advanced search functionality allows users to search by phone number, email address on Publicly accessible websites and open-source intelligence (OSINT) locations. • Should provide options for users to save or export search results. • The platform should be compatible with major operating systems such as Windows, macOS, and Linux. • The platform should have an intuitive and user-friendly interface, allowing easy navigation and access to search functions. • The platform should provide fast and efficient search results retrieval, ensuring a smooth user experience. • The platform must allow the analyst to create custom filter views and save the same for ease of use. • The platform should include secure authentication mechanisms. • The proposed tool should provide subscription for 03 Years including support during the subscription period. • The proposed subscription/ tools should support upto 250,000 searches per year. Bidders are required to quote the price in one unit of 5,000 searches. The Bank will decide the number of units to be procured based on this unit pricing. • Support and Maintenance - Provide detailed training sessions for staff to ensure smooth operation and maintenance of the tool. • The proposed tool should provide subscription for 03 Years including support during the subscription period.